

#CallItFemicide 2019 Report Update

See December 6 Report

136 Women & Girls Killed by Violence in Canada in 2019*
100 of these women and girls were killed by male accused

*20 cases remain unsolved

Overview

- Nunavut, Manitoba, Saskatchewan have the highest rates of women killed by men 38% of victims were killed in rural areas or small towns
35% of accused of intimate femicides died by suicide
53% of women/girls were killed in their own home or the home they shared with accused
When information known, most common method of killing was shooting (37%) Missing in 51% of cases

Who are the victims?

Age distribution of the victims

Women and Girls Killed | General Population

Table comparing age distribution of victims (6% 17 and under, 27% 18-34, 33% 35-54, 34% 55 and over) to general population (19% 17 and under, 23% 18-34, 26% 35-54, 33% 55 and over).

Average age: 46 years old
Youngest: < 1 year old
Oldest: 94 years old

Relationship with male accused

Intimate Partner Femicide (N=46)

Number of children left without a mother following femicide 118

Significant underestimate based on available information

Gender-related motives/indicators

Factors that distinguish femicide from other homicides (Listed alphabetically)

- Actual/pending separation, Coercive-controlling behaviours, Disappearance, Disposal/abandonment of victim, Excessive violence, Forcible confinement, Mutilation, Oppression/domination of victim's life decisions, Previous violence, Prior threats to hurt or kill victim, Sexual violence, Victim rejected accused, Victim pregnant